

September Non-Disclosure Agreement

By order: Department of Long Time

I, the undersigned, hereby undertake and agree to never, ever disclose to any parties just how awesome the month of September is in Tofino. In fact, I promise that, no matter how mind-bogglingly great my September holiday is, I will advise anyone who asks that it was rainy, foggy, crowded and boring.

Further, if I show any pictures of my stunning September Tofino vacation, I will claim they are actually from my Mexico vacation last winter (whether I took one or not).

This binding agreement applies to verbal, written, email and social media communications, and lasts until your next visit to Tofino, the end of time, or the Big One, whichever comes first.

The intent of this agreement is to maintain September as the secret, blissful, uncrowded, fantastic month it currently is. The Tuff Fog must prevail!

Signing this agreement is mandatory for all September visitors to Tofino.
